Wendell, So sorry about your loss. I'm sorry I didn't know your wife but I'm sure she was a wonderful woman and a great companion. Death is hard enough with the Gospel, I don't know how people deal with it without the gospel.. but thank goodness for the hope and promises made possible by the atonement... Know we love you and pray you will find the promised peace from the Prince of Peace at this tender time. Larry and Carol Ann Gardner

I cannot remember my crazy-mountain-lady era without remembering my partner in adventures, Paula. Thank you for being one who did not leave me on my own. You are far ahead now, but not too far. Wendell, Patrick and Bill, thanks for sharing her! You all hold a fond place in my memory and it has been good to catch up. I pray for you the Peace of Christ and eternal life.

The measure of life is not how much you are love, but how much you loved; not how much you accomplished, but how you helped others achieve; not how much you acquired, but what you inspired. Paula was never too busy, too occupied, nor too uninvolved or uncommitted to be a real friend, a trusted confidant, and a helping hand when needed most. We will all miss her love and influence.

I do not remember a time in my life in my life when Paula wasn't there. Our grandparents and our parents were friends and and this brought us together too. We played together, went to church together and once we got into 9th grade we went to school together. I helped her out when she needed me and she did the same. I'm so grateful that we zoomed in the last few months. It was like the years melted away and we were 2 friends just talking to each other. I was in Orem last summer but due to covid was unable to visit her in person. I love her deeply and saddened that she's gone but I'm so happy that she's with her parents again. Wendell please keep in touch. Love, Ann

Paula was a sweet sweet friend of mine. Even though we hadn't met in person (we were pen pals), I loved her and thought the world of her. She was so kind and considerate. I will miss her. I send my deepest sympathy to all her family with love. ~ Janie Rowell, her friend in England

We lived miles apart most of our lives, but visited when we were home on leave. It was very handy since they lived next door to Grandpa and Grandma Johnson. There was a hedge of Gooseberries and Current bushes - we always enjoyed a special treat from those bushes and then went to grandma for home made yogurt in little cups with little spoons and some honeycomb from grandpa's honey house. I am so grateful that I got to spend some time on Zoom with this dear cousin.

When I was a senior in High School living with my grandparents. Oliver & Almira Johnson their son Garn and Dot lived next door. They had a Mina Bird and when ever it would hear Paula crying it would start yelling "Paula get in here" over and over. I am so thankful to know that she has returned home to her Heavenly Family that have been waiting for her. She will be greatly missed, but out of pain.
