Vivian Pons

AUG 10, 1940 - SEP 19, 2021

Vivian Pons, our loving wife, mother and friend, passed away September 19, 2021 at her home, following a battle with cancer.

Vivian was born, August 10, 1940 in Dallas, Texas to William David Pons and Merlyn Julaine Schaugaard. She studied computer science at Brigham Young University. Vivian retired from the Utah State ORS as a skip tracer. She married R. Terry Sproat.

Survived by her husband, Terry and son, Robyn "Rob" L. Baker.

Services will be held Wednesday, September 22, 11:30 am at Premier Funeral Services, 1160 N. 1200 W. Orem, with a viewing one hour prior. Per the family's request, please come vaccinated. Interment will be at the Utah Veterans Memorial Park in Bluffdale.

Sandra Kretschmar lit a candle in honor of Vivian.

Vivian was married to my late Father, Robert Kretschmar. They remained distant friends. When my Dad passed 20 years ago, Vivian sent flowers and we cried together for hours on the phone. It was later that Vivian must have remarried. Vivian had a loving huge heart. Condolences to family and her husband. My fondest memories was having Chinese food with Vivian and shopping afterwards. Vivian had so much joy in her heart. She rescued field mice and called them nicelings and we would watch them together.

I used to go and clean my aunt Vivs home I live just a few blocks from her I just can't believe that I am just as of yesterday finding out that she passed away I want everyone to know that not only is she survived by her son and husband but my Dad her Brother Dan Pons is the last of the Mohicans and sadly wasn't contacted or even mentioned in her obituary kinda hurts a little thinking about it but my first memory of my aunt vivian was when I was very young about 2 years old and she brought over a gift and she didn't have to say anything I automatically knew it was for me it was a doll so I grabbed it and she took a picture of me that I have of this memory at my grandparents house I hope she is with them now.
