David and Ryan. So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. Janie and I have great memories of sharing life in Sandy, Utah with your family. Jerry was funny, kind, generous, and loving. We played thousands of games of Pinochle. Vacationing together at Lake Powell was a blast. Our oldest boys knew him as "Uncle Jer". Mother's Day and Father's Day were huge events between our two houses. We miss those days and we miss your family. Russ and Janie Salvadalena

Although we hadn't seen each other for years, Jerry was one of my all time best friends. We grew up together, went to high school together and joined the army together. Yes, we did the Fairbanks trek together. Rest In Peace good buddy!

Hey guys, first I lose Jerry Garcia and now Jerry cottle. No I'm just playin seriously though I never had a dad I'm kind of a bastard like that but when I did Close my eyes and picture what my idea of a father was and what that was supposed to look or be like he look like Jerry bro . Your pops was so chill . Not like any other dad when we were growing up. You too are the gleaming examples of what a good father he was I'm real sorry for your loss man I'm sure you're making him proud shit you guys were blessed to have him for a dad . He's not gone next time you're driving up Little Cottonwood Canyon and you see that sparkle in the snow that's Jerry smiling at you . Much love Dave, Ryan
