Alan Jay Winter

FEB 13, 1947 - JAN 7, 2022

We lost a Grandpa, Uncle and Father: Alan Jay Winter passed away Friday January 7, 2022 at Davis County Hospital at the age of 74, one month prior to his birthday. He was born on February 13, 1947 in Salt Lake City to Stephen Henry Winter and Louise Crofts.

He was survived by his brother Stephen Winter, children Jeremy Winter, Christopher Winter, Jennifer Winter and Jessica Winter Hawe, grandchildren Jessi, Jonathan, Hayli, Kaiser, Carter, Charlotte, Wrenna and his tiny dog Danny who is happily living with the grandchildren.

Alan grew up in Orderville, Utah and spent his adult life in the Salt Lake City area. He adored his grandchildren, watching good movies, having good conversations, telling bad Dad jokes, and was a big foodie and loved to cook, especially on the charcoal barbeque. He was a good story teller: stories of the past or ones imagined for bed time.

A service of remembrance is open to anyone who wants to join on Saturday, January 15th, at 11am via Zoom. Join using the link and passcode or the QR code below:

Sunny posted:

Alan was a man with honor and integrity. He lived truly lived in the same way as he believed and the values he spoke of. Alan had a huge heart and so, of course, he loved many. He charished his children. Each one of them were always on his mind. He told me so many great things about each one of them. Each one was more precious to him than he could ever express. Love to you, Alan.

Sunny lit a candle in honor of Alan.

Alan had so many great dad jokes but they the ones he cherished and loved the most were the little comments his kids made about Alank years when they were little ones. I love you, Alan. I still miss you but know that you live on in my heart always.
