Scott McCabe Helm

JUL 20, 1950 - FEB 21, 2022

Scott McCabe Helm was born on July 20, 1950 and passed away on February 21, 2022 after a very short battle with a very aggressive cancer.

Scott truly enjoyed people, whether it was the ladies in Las Vegas who let him put a clock in the casino gift shop, the high school buddies who met once a year to play golf, or the neighborhood families who shoveled walks, mowed lawns and shared stories with their favorite adult beverages.

If the sun was out and the course was open, he played golf every Sunday with his closest friends. Although the foursome changed throughout the years, his fondness for those friends remained constant.

The miles that separated him from his immediate family did not change his love for them or their love for him. His in-laws welcomed him into their family and they will miss his laughter and special food deliveries.

Scott was the “fry guy” at the Utah Arts Festival even winning the Culinary Award for Best Food. He operated a Maui Wowi franchise in Arizona and used it as an opportunity to interact with people and make new friends.

As one of his friends said, he was a force of nature who will truly be missed. Scott did not want people to be sad. A memorial will be held in July so we can all share happy memories and cry happy tears. If you would like to receive the details, please leave your contact information.

Valree, our hearts go out to you. We are sad to see the news of Scott's passing. It was always a blast of joy seeing Scott, even at our brief encounters at the neighborhood grocery store. We loved his enthusiasm, talking gardening and food, schemes, and his oh so many talents. One time we had been whining about the state of our arborvitae bushes. So along comes Scott the next day and gives them the best pruning of their life. I could not find a photo of Scott, guessing he was a bit camera shy. So I am posting a photo of you that he would have loved. We would be honored to attend the memorial in July, clsrbs@gmail.comCindy and Ben Spigle
