It's such sad news to hear that you are no longer with us, my dear friend. Thank you for the wonderful friendship. Thank you for your generous, caring and beautiful heart and soul. Your kind heart and compassionate nature will be remembered for many years to come. It's truly heartbreaking hearing of your passing. You will be dearly missed, my precious friend. Thank you for supporting me every step of the way with my fundraising initiatives throughout my pageant journey. Thank you for purchasing a knitted blanket for my homeless cause. I had planned on sending you a second knitted blanket because you loved these, especially after your 3 strokes, but it's too late now. May you RIP. 😞

I have known Scott for many years. In California Howard Aldal put on rodeos and Scott became one of our family members. He rode horses and helped where ever he was asked. I enjoyed talking with him about the Lord. God meant so much to him. Scott was a true friend. He never met a stranger as you walked away a friend. You will be missed but know you are in a better place. Love you my friend! Evelyn Wollmann
