Trena Leone Wise

MAR 1, 1982 - OCT 17, 2022

It is with extreme sadness that we announce the unexpected passing of Trena Leone Wise, on October 17th 2022. She was a beloved wife, dedicated mother, wonderful friend and most excitedly and proud, Glemma! She was born on March 1st, 1982 and raised with grace and strength by her single mother Wilma Webb.

Trena was born in Tabiona Utah where she had fond memories of her siblings, a twin sister Trisha Winn, and older siblings Deniika Delgado and TJ Winn. Trena brought three beautiful daughters into this world, Kenzie, Jade, Stephania and later adopted her fourth, Lacey.

Working hard was a mantra she lived by when becoming an LPN in her early 20's. She then continued her education in her 30's to gain her Bachelors in Business Administration. She never wanted to feel like she had to be taken care of by anyone so she became invested in forensic accounting.

Spending time with her family and taking pictures was one of her greatest passions in life. Then one day in the fall/winter of 2016 she met the love of her life, Halen Andrew Wise online. Soon after they met and began dating, they realized that they were not just in love, but are true soulmates. She gained three amazing sons from this beautiful bond, Halen, Eric and Keenan. On December 11th 2018 they blended their families as well as their souls in legal and spiritual marriage.

During this time, makeup, glam, glitter, and glitz became her passion. She collected any and everything to do with the shimmer, shine and splendor of not only looking good, but feeling good. She would remind herself every day that she was worth being loved and respected.

Her excitement for makeup was only outdone by the welcoming of her three grandchildren, Cozette in 2019, Ryker in 2021 and Skylar in 2022. They became her true pride and joy.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Wilma Webb.
