I miss my grandpa everyday. I always remember being a little girl and going to his house and playing with the toy tractors he had. I remember every Easter he would bring me and my brother massive Easter baskets. I still can't believe that he's not here anymore.

He was my best friend and closest cousin. We had so much fun and so many trips together. I loved him so much. There's a hole in my heart that will never be filled until I see him on the other side. Yes I'll be there for his ashes spread at the cabin. ❤️

I knew Jeff back in the 1980's when he lived around the corner from me. He was a good guy and always fun to hang out with and go riding with. I remember a motorcycle trip to Moab and Canyonlands. Lots of fun. Miss you Jeff.

Carey, it's Kelly Woodson Terry's wife, I am very interested in going up when u spread his ashes. Jeff was one of the most kindest caring person. He would help anyone. I'll never forget when he took Bobbi on the way home from Montana then we lost him and her the whole way home. We knew she was in good care. Thanks Kelly
