Marsha Tarbet

NOV 14, 1944 - FEB 24, 2023

We are sad to announce the passing of Marsha Tarbet, 78, our sweet sister, aunt, and friend left us on February 24, 2023 in Taylorsville, Utah surrounded by family, friends, and loved ones. She was a 'real trooper' during the twenty years as she dealt with thyroid cancer. Marsha was born in Logan, Utah to Wendell Tarbet and Marion Johnson Tarbet on November 14, 1944 and is survived by Jolayne Krawiec, (sister), Christopher Todd Krawiec (nephew), Tracy John Krawiec (nephew), and Carl Krawiec (brother-in-law).

She attended Sacramento Community College for 2 ½ years, and went on to work in Civil Service for the Social Security Department.

Marsha was a beautiful person who loved life, making friends, cooking, collecting fine linens, her pets, and gardening. Her artistic side would show when she attended parties wearing some vintage clothing she had collected.

Many a thank you to the friends and neighbors who so willingly gave their love, visits, and assistance to Marsha in her last few days.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 3:00 pm on Sunday April 2, 2023, at Summit Vista, 3390 West Signal Peak Drive, Taylorsville, Utah.

I knew Marsha as an amazing friend . She was a friend , a confident , and often shared in adventures with me . I met her in San Francisco back in the 70's when she worked for the government . We often visited over dinners at new discovered restaurants and if we enjoyed them , we would take our other friends to enjoy them . Marsha loved the countryside and coastline out and away from the city and often spent her weekends up Highway 101 or the Coast highway 1 . She loved the small quiet villages up north of the city where she said the "real people " lived . One of her favorite hamlets was Layyonville ., California . Marsha loved to walk along the streams and muse around the small ponds and meadows out in the country . She loved the animals she saw and sometimes had a cache of peanuts and sunflower seeds to entice the little critters to come say Hi . Marsha loved the live theater and often went to plays at the A C T on Gery Blvd in the city and she would go see the Nutcracker three or four times a season. In the city , she loved to watch the mime troops and street artists and often purchased items from the handiwork like scarves , matching hat or a piece of jewelry she watched an artist make to her specifications . . Marsha often went to Fisherman's Wharf or Gherridelli Square just to watch the tourists having a good time . One of her favorite things to do was to go to the outside concerts and sit on a grassy hillside and just to the beautiful music .Marsha was a wonderful Free Spirit always looking for another way to enjoy life and share it with others . The weekends of September would find her at the Renaissance Fair in Muir Woods just outside Sausalito . I moved to Salt Lake in 74 and lost contact with Marsha . Eventually , Marsha moved to Salt Lake and she occasionally visited with my wife and me . About 85 , I lost contact with her because I moved to Provo . Marsha moved and I didn't have her new address and no phone number . I often thought about my old friend and I have often tried to find her . I took a chance and looked in the obituaries . I am so very sorry that Marsha has returned to Heavenly Father . I can't imagine your sorrow and emptiness . A special part of my heart has gone numb finding her gone . I am so sorry that I didn't know and wasn't there for her . Marsha is one of Heavenly Father's beautiful creations .May God's love and Spirit always be with your family . May God hold you and yours in the Palm of His Hand .In Sorrow and reflection ,Warren Miller
