Doug was just a big teddy bear; liked to have people think he was just a bear. Truly loved this man - I just made many mistakes along the way; I know we'll see each other again in our eternal lives; but for now I'll remember the great man he truly was. Wish I had time to make things up to him. Love you Doug!!!

Growing up in our house was always an adventure. I remember good times and bad times and they are memories for a lifetime. I wish we had had more opportunities to spend time together as adults. Now it seems that those occasional visits or phone calls weren't enough. Annette and I will miss you brother. Rest in peace.

I remember being about 5 years old having stolen a teddy bear pin from a local grocery store. My father overheard me telling my cousin about my grand theft, and immediately had me get in the car. He drove me back to the store to return the pin with an apology. I learned a valuable lesson that day!35 years later, I still share this story my children and anyone that will listen that lesson in humility and honesty.
