I remember Carolyn from high school... She was so much fun to be around... I remember all of us dragging the yard in her blue hoopty...Wendy Wood, Janis Johnson, Becky Reber, her sister Diane and myself .. Scoping out the cute guys.. We got pulled over one night.We had a bunch of beer, Of course we were all under age... As we were being pulled over , beer was flying out the windows... But I hit a six pack underneath my feet... Fortunately the officer let us go... Everyone was bummed because they thought we didn't have any more beer... As we got away I pulled out the six pack..woo hoo.. We were some crazy girls but a lot of fun! I will always have fun memories of The girls although Diane and I are the last living. Rest in Peace...Until we all meet again!

I have so many cherished memories of my grandma but I will always remember how quirky she was and how she loved to embarrass her grandchildren I loved that she never cared what anybody else thought and was never scared to be her goofy self I will definitely miss laughing with her
