Maximo Orlando Concepcion Peralta

NOV 18, 1938 - MAY 7, 2023

Maximo Orlando Concepcion Peralta passed away peacefully and surrounded by his loving family at home on Sunday, May 7, 2023 in South Jordan Utah. He was survived by his devoted wife of 57 years, Aura Concepcion, whom he married in Rincon de Piedras, Dominican Republic on July 3, 1965. He is also survived by his children whom he adored, Nathalie, Katherine, and Jesus Orlando, as well as his other loves, his grandchildren and great grandchild, Chelsea, Charlie, Chris, Spencer, Gabriela, Kody and Victor. Orlando is also survived by three sisters and a great number of nieces and nephews that viewed him as father, counselor, and mentor. Our dear Orlando was born in San Jose de las Matas, Dominican Republic on November 18, 1938. He studied engineering at the Universidad Autonoma de Santo Domingo. Before moving to New Jersey in 1982, Orlando was a sales executive for La Quimica, DR for 15 years. Once in the United States, he dedicated himself to service, received an award as a leader of the SAJOMA community in Queens NY, and held many positions in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His greatest contribution was as Bishop of the same church. Through his 16 years of service in this position, he served in a selfless and loving way that made him a beloved leader, teacher, and guide.

Orlando had many passions throughout his life, three were constant: His family, his country, and his faith. Among his talents (and they were many) we want to shine a light on his writings – a legacy that keeps us close to him even in his absence.

Al Final

Cuando hayamos a emprender el camino sin final quiero irme antes que tu
para esperarte al llegar

Obituary

Maximo Orlando Concepcion Peralta

NOV 18, 1938 - MAY 7, 2023

---

Al llegar dije sin ver que esto es irreflexivo pues dije antes que final no tiene aquel camino

Mas, con final o sin el he de ir sin prontitud
y en el ire lentamente hasta que me alcances tu

Y ya juntos en la nada continuaremos los dos amandonos como nunca hasta encontrarnos con Dios.

Services to celebrate his life will take place in Utah on May 11th, New Jersey on June 17th and the Dominican Republic on June 24.

My dad, my first love and my hero! How does the world continue to turn after you've gone... must be for us—the ones responsible to carry your legacy of love and service. Our story continues because live never ends.
