William (Bill) David Sykes

AUG 12, 1942 - JUN 9, 2023

William David Sykes (Bill) passed away peacefully due to lingering health conditions on Friday, June 9, 2023, in Layton, Utah. Bill was born August 12, 1942, in Park City, Ut. Bill spent the majority of his youth and adult life in American Fork, Utah, where he was taught carpentry skills by his father and became skilled in this trade. He worked in the carpenter trade his whole life and was known for his quality work. Bill was also an avid skier and taught many of his friends and acquaintances how to ski. Bill was known by his friends to be very loyal and eager to help them in any way.

Bill is preceded in death by his parents, George Russell Sykes and Luella Young Sykes, Shirley Mae Maughan, and Wesley George Sykes.

Kelsea Bosell posted:

I worked with Bill for two years at maverik and he was such a kind soul. He was friends with everyone, and had work ethic like no one today. I'll miss his stories he'd share about his life. I'm so sad he's gone, but his memory is cherished. ❤️
