Dear Brian & Family, We are very sorry to hear of the passing of Julia (Julie as we called her) she was always so sweet, kind and funny to be around. We met her and Brian in Star Valley Wyoming and enjoyed many golf and social gatherings with them. Julie was an excellent golfer which I enjoyed golfing with on the Ladies Golf Association. Julie will be missed. Our sincere condolences to the family. Mark & Teri Ellison

My most favorite memories are of meeting my new Aunt Julia when she first married Brian and came into the Yates family. Playing with all the cousins at the many family dinners and gatherings. Craig, Vickie, Everett, "little Brian", Linda, Martin, my brothers and sisters, and I (Diana), the Anderson crew, and the Mitchell kids all running around, playing, enjoying Grandma Yates candy and beautiful Christmas tree with those bubble lights...growing from just a few cousins to the whole gang. Such great childhoods. We all loved Julia. So sad that everyone had to grow up and move on, but so glad that Facebook came along to help us all keep in touch and remember all the good times. Love to everyone! Miss the "old days".
