Timothy James Pflieger

AUG 4, 1967 - SEP 17, 2023

Timothy James Pflieger was born August 4, 1967 in Grand Junction Co. and was adopted October 17, 1967 by Barbara and Richard Pflieger of Loveland Co. Survivors are his beloved wife Janet, stepsons Nathaniel Johnson and Bryce Johnson, daughter Danielle Pflieger of Broomfield, Co., sister, Melissa Baca of Cle Elum, Washington, brother, Matt Pflieger of Loveland Co. and mother Barbara Pflieger of Loveland, Co. His father, Richard, preceded him in death in 2022.

Tim was raised west of Loveland in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains where he roamed along the Big Thompson River and the Buckhorn Creek Valley. He loved nature, was a trapper and caught brookies in the Buckhorn Creek. After graduation from high school and trade school he became a welder and helped build storage tanks all over Colorado and Eastern United States. He loved his home with Janet and enjoyed the sound of the nearby creek watching the hummingbirds and viewing the stars from his patio .He was an avid Bronco fan. As an adolescent he took care of 'TD' the pony mascot of the Broncos and even paraded him on the field during games. As an adult he became a heavy equipment Operator especially of the track hoe. His friends said he could make a track hoe dance. When back pain became a very big deal he switched careers and became a licensed security guard with peak security. He spent many nights keeping the creepers at bay.

He will be missed by many and his sense of humor will live on
May he rest in peace

Friends and family are welcome to gather for a brief memorial service at Premier Funeral Home, 67 E. 8000 So. in Midvale, Utah on Saturday, October 14 at 11:00 am.
