Bradley Lewis Strong

MAY 25, 1945 - OCT 2, 2023

Bradley Lewis Strong, born on May 25, 1945, in Layton, Utah, passed on October 2, 2023. He was known for his unique sense of humor, his profound love for life, and his unwavering affection for his dogs. Brad's memory will forever be cherished by those who had the privilege of knowing him.

Brad attended Provo High School and later pursued a career as a dedicated machinist, showcasing his exceptional skills and craftsmanship. He took great pride in his work and was admired by his colleagues and peers.

Among his numerous accomplishments, Brad's proudest achievement was earning the rank of Eagle Scout, a testament to his commitment and determination.

Outside of work, Brad lived life to the fullest. He had a passion for camping, where he created countless memories with his family, often sneaking ice cream to his beloved grandkids. His enthusiasm for cars, especially his favorite 57 Chevy's, made him a true car enthusiast. Brad was also known for his festive spirit and enjoyed decorating his home for the holidays, bringing joy and warmth to those around him.

Brad was preceded in death by his parents, Elmer and Marie Strong, his son, Robert Strong, and his great-grandchild, Liam Strong.

He is survived by his loving children: Stephanie Nageli (Jeff), Terrisa Ashley, and Julianne Stagg (Justin), as well as his cherished grandchildren: Melissa (Daniel) Brewer, Jessica (Joey) Levet, Alex (Lexie) Krogh, Tyler (Kelsi) Strong, Teren (Mackenzie) Nageli, Breanna (Thomas) Riches Nageli, Miranda (Kyle) Christensen, Alysha (Braxton) Webster, Joshua Marshal, and Kaycee Ashley. Brad's legacy also lives on through his 15 great-grandchildren.

Bradley Lewis Strong will be remembered for his zest for life, his enduring love for family, and his ability to bring laughter and joy to those he touched. He will be deeply missed by all who had
