My cousin Brian had a huge heart. His enthusiasm for life, a great time with family and friends, and the San Francisco 49ers football team were contagious. I will miss him. I hope they win the Super Bowl. He loved his children and grandchildren and recently told he that Kyle's son had been baptized. My condolences to Ryan, Cheryl, Doug, Kyle and his children and Jessie and nieces and nephews. Rest In Peace Brian and fly like the eagles you loved.
