Terry was about as good as they come, he had a compassionate heart and a spirit so full of joy, he loved to crack jokes any chance he got and would always make you laugh with his witty remarks. He was always building something or taking something apart. Terry was the karaoke king, you've never heard someone sing so loud and proud! He would truly do anything for anyone. Big ol teddy bear. He had the nickname "wolf" which is perfect for him, always protecting and standing up for those he loved and cared for. May he continue to be the leader of the pack and build all the things and drive all the cars! I'll miss you telling me how good my food is because we all know it probably wasn't ;) I'll be singing down here for ya! Love you buddy!!
