Dallas Weldon Clark

APR 4, 1931 - APR 27, 2024

At 6:30 a.m. on April 27, 2024, our father, Dallas Weldon Clark, left this world to be with his eternal companion, our mom, Audrey Lee Martin. Words truly cannot express what a great blessing he was to all of us. His strength, kindness and love touched the lives of so many.

Our dad had many talents and skills, however, we can't emphasize enough how very unassuming he was. He didn't draw attention to himself, boast, or impose himself on anyone. He was calm and measured. He rarely lost his temper. He was a solid person, with a good sense of humor.

He answered the call to serve his Country as a pilot in the United States Air Force. In civilian life, he served troubled youth as a Bexar County probation officer and then as a parole officer/manager for the Texas Youth Council. He also developed skills to overhaul automobile engines to provide extra income for his large family.

Our dad graduated from the University of Utah and for an advanced degree, attended Sam Houston State in Texas.

He held many positions in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and was a devout and active member.

Dallas Weldon Clark was born to Florence Geneve Rasmussen and Jonathan Shirley Clark on April 4, 1931, in Logan, Utah. He is survived by Terri Clark, daughter; Scott Clark, son (Nataliya); LaRae Clark, daughter; Pamela Clark Jones, daughter (Rick); Gary Clark, son; Chris Clark, son (Jennifer); Florence Clark Smith, sister; Justin Clark, brother (Barbara); Gary Clark, brother (Judy); and fifteen grandchildren: Snezhana Bowden, Dmytro Clark, Veronica Clark, Dallas Clark, Daniel Clark, Elizabeth Clark, Rachel Clark, Derek Clark, Dean Clark, Amanda Jones, Joshua Jones, Logan Clark, Mason Clark, Audrey Clark, Damon Clark.

He was predeceased by his wife, Audrey Martin Clark; his parents, Florence Geneve Rasmussen, mother; and Jonathan Shirley Clark, father; Marjorie Ridgeway, sister;

I wanted to send my deepest condolences to the Clark family; Scott, Terry, LaRae, Pam, Gary, and Chris after just viewing the services (online) for their beloved father. The services touched my heart deeply. My family lived two doors down from the Clark family when they moved to San Antonio, Texas. His time in Texas was referenced many times during the service and brought back many memories of the Clark family. I was just a little kid at the time so most of my memories of Mr. Clark were rather limited. The majority of my time was spent playing with their daughter Pam (Clark-Jones). I remember Mr. Clark as a tall man; from the perspective of my young 5 year old self. But as the years passed being neighbors, I remember him as being a calm and quiet man who was very fit and active. I can say he was a man of strength. There was strength in the marriage with Mrs. Clark, strength in his beliefs in the Mormon Church, strength in their extraordinary parenting of their children demonstrating and teaching good morals and values. As referenced in the services...he did "the right things" in life and because of his many strengths they were a "solid" family; one I am so grateful for being able to share my life with during their "Texas" time. As a young child it was very sad to see them leave Texas and return to Utah, but in hindsight, with age, I completely understanding the need to return to his "home" to continue to raise a family. And now in the end I believe as do others that he is now "home" eternally. Rest In Peace, Mr. Clark. Y'all are in my thoughts and prayers. Mary Boehm Hons

Laurie and I were youngsters, 21 and 24 yrs. old, when we met Weldon and Audrey; for 40 years they treated us like their children, with much love, affection, encouragement, and concern for our challenges. Their advice and example made us better people and showed us how to follow the Savior with sincerity and true concern for others. We love them like second parents. Charlie and Laurie McKnight
