Ramon Toro Garcia

MAY 7, 1988 - AUG 16, 2024

Raymond, Titos, our sweet brother, father to Zailei and Everlei, Husband to Fabiola, Son to Yolanda and Orlando Sr., treasured Uncle, and beloved friend – we love you with all of our hearts and will always rejoice over the great memories you’ve left imprinted in our hearts. If you’ve known Ramon for quite sometime, you know Fabi his wife was right there beside him. Literally stuck to each other like 2 peas in a pod. Ramon met his high school sweetheart in 2005, they got married on July 17, 2006 and shortly after had their first born Zailei. Later in 2015 they had their second daughter Everlei. They had been married for 18 years. Here is a jist of who Ramon was. Ramon was so outgoing, could make friends with anyone and loved to introduce everyone he knew to each other at some point. For Ramon, the more the merrier. If you look beside you, you most likely at some point met this person with Ramon’s help. He was spontaneous and you can always guarantee an amazing memory to remember with him. He was always someone you know you could count on if help was needed. Ramon was extremely funny – he truly never missed an opportunity to tell a joke or make fun of a situation. We’ll always remember his big laugh, big smile, short spikey hair, sense of style, and big 6’1 hugs. The greatest blessing was to see Ramon become a father over time. Like most dads, he learned to speak with assertiveness and care, loved to talk about politics and the economy, repaired and maintained his house as best as he could, and sheltered nearly everyone in his circle who needed a home at one point or another. His generosity is what sets Ramon apart.

You may not have known Ramon well, but even so, you know him through the people in your lives. If you know a man who places a family above all else and a father that makes sure his daughters understand how much he loved them, you know Ramon. A man who loved his 3 girls, a son who loved his mom and siblings. If you are in this room today, you all know Ramon loved you.
