

Frank Feliciano

FEB 13, 1959 - JUL 8, 2024

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
-----------------------	--------

Frank Feliciano

FEB 13, 1959 - JUL 8, 2024

Frank Feliciano, beloved husband, father, son, brother, and friend passed away Monday July 8, 2024, in Layton, Utah at the age of 65. He is survived by his devoted wife, Jenney Marsh Feliciano, and his five beloved children: Sarah, Hannah, Leah, Mariah, and Gunner. Frank's immense pride in his family was evident in every interaction and his deep love for them was the central part of his life.

He was born in Miami, Florida on February 13, 1959, where he spent his early years surrounded by his extended family. In 1987, Frank married his first wife, Janet Feliciano. They moved to Sarasota, Florida where they raised their three daughters. Twenty years later, Frank met his current wife Jen and her two eldest children, Brandie and Austin. They fell in love, blended and grew their family, and moved to Utah where they currently reside. Frank is also remembered fondly by his siblings, Ana Feliciano- Alvarez and Felix Feliciano Jr. He was predeceased by his parents, Maria Chaves and Felix Feliciano, who were a guiding light in his life.

Frank's favorite pass time was simply spending time with his family. His biggest passion was his profound love for food, whether preparing a special meal or sharing culinary experiences with others. Fishing and being in the ocean were some of his greatest pleasures. A natural history buff at heart, his favorite novel being "A Land Remembered" by Patrick D. Smith, he loved to be immersed in captivating conversations with friends and acquaintances. His sense of humor and ability to connect with people made him a treasured figure among friends and family.

Frank Feliciano's memory will live on through the countless lives he touched and the love he shared. Frank had an extraordinary talent for making people feel at ease and cherished, and his absence will be deeply felt by all who had the privilege of knowing him. He will be dearly missed but fondly remembered for his vibrant spirit, boundless love, and unwavering resilience.

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Frank by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit