Gabriel Mora

JUL 11, 1955 - OCT 6, 2024

Gabriel Mora, Era un increíble esposo, padre, tío, abuelo y hermano. Siempre fue un hombre con un gran entusiasmo hacia la vida, estaba ahí cuando necesitabas un amigo, un protector. Él era alguien que, con sus abrazos y su gran amor incondicional, te podía reconfortar en los días cuando más lo necesitabas. Fue un gran esposo, tuvo la bendición de haber conocido al amor de su vida cuando eran solo niños, y los dos tuvieron la oportunidad de vivir muchas memorias juntos. Su alegría y orgullo siempre fue su familia, se esforzaba por hacerlos felices y hacía todo lo que estaba en su poder para darles a su familia todo lo que necesitaban. Él fue un hombre honorable en el trabajo y en la capilla, siempre ayudando en la medida que podía. Su legado de amor, bondad y sacrificio vivirá en nuestros corazones para siempre. Aunque ya no esté físicamente con nosotros, su espíritu permanecerá presente en cada momento especial, en cada sonrisa y en cada lágrima compartida. Estamos agradecidos por haber tenido la oportunidad de conocerlo y amarlo, y sabemos que su luz brillará eternamente en nuestras vidas. Que descanse en paz, sabiendo que su amor perdurará por generaciones.

Gabriel Mora was an incredible husband, father, uncle, grandfather, and brother. He was always a man with great enthusiasm for life, there when you needed a friend, a protector. He was someone who, with his hugs and his great unconditional love, could comfort you on the days when you needed it most. He was a great husband, blessed to have met the love of his life when they were just children, and they both had the opportunity to create many memories together. His joy and pride were always his family; he strived to make them happy and did everything in his power to provide his family with everything they needed. He was an honorable man at work and in the chapel, always helping as much as he could. His legacy of love, kindness, and sacrifice will live on in our hearts forever. Although he is no longer physically with us, his spirit will remain present in every special moment, every smile, and every shared tear. We are grateful to have had the opportunity to know and love him, and we know that his light will shine eternally in our lives. May he rest in peace, knowing that his love will endure for generations.
