Terri Rae Ward Judd

JUN 6, 1969 - SEP 21, 2024

Terri Rae Ward Judd, 55, of Pleasant Grove, Utah passed away on Saturday morning September 21, 2024 at American Fork Hospital.

Terri was born June 6, 1969, in Franklin, Pennsylvania to Kenneth Ward and Betty Dodd. Terri attended American Fork High School and went on to get a degree in nursing at Weber State University. Terri was known for her love of travel which led to and influenced her occupation as a flight nurse and travel nurse. She also had a passion for crocheting and gifting her pieces to others. She was a collector of things and friends which created a colorful and adventurous life for herself and her children.

Terri is survived by her eldest son Nathan Harris, daughter Sidney Roberts and youngest son Karson Critchfield. Terri is also survived by her sister Ruth Caldwell and brother Joseph Ward. She was preceded in death by her parents, Kenneth Leo Ward and Betty Caroline Dodd; and her brothers Kenneth Mark Ward and David John Ward.

A graveside service and celebration of life will be held at the American Fork, Utah cemetery on Saturday, October 26th at 11:00 AM. The gravesite is located on the west side of the property. In lieu of flowers the family requests any donations be made to Sidney Roberts for benefit of Karson Critchfield in Terri's memory. Terri, and the generosity of others will be remembered fondly by all that had the privilege of knowing her.

I grew up as a close friend of Terri's. I have so many fond memories. We would come home from high school, drink hot chocolate and eat a piece of toast while watching days of our lives. I remember the day Terri bought her scooter. We rode that everywhere. She loved that scooter. I'm glad we have kept in touch lately. Just wish it had been more. I love and miss you dear friend.
