Ramona Inez (Tucker) Lewis

MAR 2, 1937 - NOV 17, 2024

With great sadness, we announce the passing of our family's dear, amazing Matriarch, Ramona Inez (Tucker) Lewis. She was born March 2nd, 1937 and passed away the evening of November 17th, 2024.

We are consoled by our knowledge that she is now reunited with her eternal companion, Arlund D Lewis Sr. Their marriage was the beginning of an incredible legacy that undoubtedly, will last an eternity. Together, they are the parents and grandparents of 12 children, 59 grandchildren, 63 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren. Ramona's intrinsic goodness was made evident by the love she shared with everyone. She was an immediate friend, at every introduction. She was also a sympathetic ear to anyone needing understanding, without judgment. She was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and served faithfully, in many callings. Her last words were; "Tell everyone that I love them". Ramona was preceded in death by; her husband Arlund Lewis Sr., her sons Steven Lewis, Randy Lewis and Rick Lewis, her daughters Gwen Liddiard and Kathy Lewis, her grandsons Arlund Lewis III and Daniel Lewis, her sisters Carol Tucker, Blanche Vincent, and Shirley Grende, her brothers Dick Tucker and Jack Webb and her mother Elva Lloyd. Dear Lewis family, Our sincere condolences at the passing of your dear mother and our cherished friend, Ramona. Indeed, she was a friend to all. We all loved her for her Christlike attributes, and her kind and gentle ways. "Blessed are the saints that die unto the Lord, for death shall be sweet unto them." (D&C 42:46), " ...for they shall rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." (Rev. 14:13). "For the faithful saints have filled the full measure of their creation, and a gracious God will give them all things in due course." (Brigham Young). May our Father in Heaven bless your family always! With love and affection. George and Peggy Usher, Summerfield Manor, ministering couple.
