Nathan Chase Knowles

JAN 31, 1997 - DEC 30, 2024

Nathan Chase Knowles, affectionately known as Nate or Nater-Bug, was born on January 31, 1997, in Fremont, California. He passed away peacefully on December 30, 2024, in Salt Lake City, Utah, where he had made his home.

Nate was known for his radiant smile, contagious laughter, and deep compassion for others. He worked at Trader Joe's and was a talented tattoo artist, expressing his artistry through ink and creativity. His dedication to his craft and his ability to connect with others left a lasting impression on everyone fortunate enough to know him.

A devoted Christian, Nate lived by the words of Hebrews 13, 1-6 and often reminded others to "let your light shine." His love for family was evident in the way he treasured the time spent with his mother, Aerlette Knowles, Brothers, Matthew Knowles (Tiffany Knowles), Jason Knowles (Aubrey Knowles), Sister, Christina Knowles. He took great joy in his role as an uncle, showering his nieces and nephews with affection and guidance. Nieces and Nephews: Kiarra Knowles, Navy Knowles, Emma Knowles, Ethan Knowles, Lyric Knowles, Phoebe Knowles.

Additionally survived by his father David Knowles, Uncle Darren Pence, and additional Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and Friends.

Nate's compassion extended beyond his family. He cared deeply for friends and even strangers, always making sure those around him felt love, valued and supported. This ability to forge connections and enrich the lives of so many will be sorely missed and never forgotten.

Nathan is survived by his loving family, who will carry forward his memory and the lessons he imparted through his kindness and artistry. His spirit will continue to shine in the hearts of all who knew him.
