

LaVon Brown

SEP 18, 1961 - JAN 19, 2025

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 5

LaVon Brown

SEP 18, 1961 - JAN 19, 2025

LaVon Brown, a radiant soul known for her infectious laughter and unwavering love, passed away peacefully in her beloved hometown of Ogden, Utah, on January 19, 2025, at the age of 63. Born on September 18, 1961, in Ogden, she dedicated her entire life to the city that nurtured her soul, surrounded by majestic mountains and the communities that shaped her identity. LaVon's life was a beautiful testament to the profound joy of family. She was a devoted mother to her four children: Chris Brown, Brad Perez (whose wife is Liz), Nathan Perez (whose wife is Cecilia), and Chantel Eggett (whose husband is Matt). Her role as a grandmother was one she cherished deeply, and she formed special bonds with each of her grandchildren: Dalin, Kayla, Xavion, Nevaeh, Destin, Ayla, Breion, Ulric, JohnnyJack, Oliver, Lukas, Makenzie, Hayden, and Aria. LaVon's laughter and wisdom will forever be cherished by her loving family, ensuring that her legacy lives on. Surviving her are her brothers, Mike (whose wife is Gayle) and Kiven (whose wife is Linda), Jay, and Joe. They are all blessed to have shared countless memories of a sister who brought an unparalleled sense of lightness and humor into their lives. LaVon's spirit continues to reside in the hearts of her numerous nieces and nephews, whose lives she touched with her unwavering generosity and infectious laughter. Preceding her in death and reunited with her are her parents, Robert and Sybil, her sister Nanette, and other cherished family members who had a profound and lasting impact on her life. Together, they instilled in LaVon the invaluable values of kindness and compassion, which she carried with her always. LaVon Brown's professional life was marked by her long-standing tenure at Parker Hannifin, where her dedication and work ethic were evident to all who knew her. Her colleagues admired her reliability and her ability to brighten up any workday. Beyond her family and work, LaVon's passion for baseball was unparalleled. She was an ardent fan of the Atlanta Braves, following their games with enthusiasm and joy. Her love for the sport was an integral part of her

Obituary

LaVon Brown

SEP 18, 1961 - JAN 19, 2025

being, and she shared it with her children and grandchildren, many of whom inherited her passion for the game. Those who knew LaVon remembered her as a loving, funny, and generous person. She had an uncanny knack for finding humor in everyday life, and her laughter was contagious. LaVon's generosity knew no bounds; she freely gave of herself to others, whether it was her time, her advice, or a simple act of kindness. LaVon's life was a testament to the love she gave and received. Her presence was a gift to those who had the privilege of knowing her, and her memory will be cherished and celebrated. As we honor her remarkable life, we are reminded of the warmth and joy she brought to the world. LaVon's story doesn't end with her passing; her spirit lives on in the stories shared, the memories cherished, and the lives she touched. Her laughter will echo in our hearts, her love will continue to inspire us, and the lessons she imparted will be passed down through generations. As we bid farewell to LaVon Brown, we hold onto the love she exemplified, the joy she spread, and the family she adored. Her life was a beautiful tapestry woven with the threads of kindness, humor, and generosity, a tapestry that will continue to comfort and provide solace to those she left behind. LaVon's life was a journey well-traveled, and though she will be deeply missed, her legacy of love will forever guide her family and friends. Rest in peace, dear LaVon, knowing that your spirit lives on in the hearts of all who loved

Tribute Wall

LaVon Brown

SEP 18, 1961 - JAN 19, 2025

Linda Brown posted:

She was such a bright light and I truly miss her. She made me laugh and enjoyed my sense of humor with her. My Lady. Always called her that and she would just laugh at me. Was up for anything and everything. I miss her dearly. Till we meet again Lady eep an eye on us all down here. Luv you.

February 6 at 7:31 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring LaVon by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit