Robert Wayne Will II

AUG 7, 1960 - JAN 27, 2025

Robert Wayne Will II August 7, 1960 - January 27, 2025

Robert Wayne Will II died on January 27, 2025 at 64 years old in Millcreek, Utah. He was born to Robert Wayne Will Sr. and Geraldine Lund Veatch Will on August 7, 1960 in Murray, the third oldest of five siblings.

Rob attended Cottonwood High School and the University of Utah, where he studied physics and medicine. He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served a mission in Oakland, California. Rob was a stock trader, a graphic designer, an entrepreneur, and a jack of many trades. He loved music – including playing the drums – as well as cars, the mountains, drawing, and learning.

Rob is preceded in death by his parents and elder sisters Kellie Lorraine Will and Sharon (Frank) Veatch Tyree. He is survived by his sisters Debrah (Troy) Rice and Jean (Bill) Blank and his daughter Sophie. He is also survived by his Stepdaughters Chyenna and Candace and his step grandchildren: Meena, Sofia (Squish), Christopher, Saige, Haven, Haisley, and Kyleigh and his beloved dog Syah.

He is buried with his parents in Larkin Sunset Gardens.
