Sandra Louise Crow

JAN 12, 1955 - FEB 20, 2025

Sandra Louise Crow passed away peacefully on February 20, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, craftsmanship, and devotion to her family. She made her home in Reno, Nevada, where she built a life filled with creativity and care.

Sandra was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She spent decades working with her hands in the electronics industry, demonstrating skill and precision in her craft. Beyond her work, she found joy in sewing, gardening, and creating intricate, handcrafted pieces—each one a reflection of her patience, talent, and attention to detail.

She is survived by her loving husband, Thurman Wayne Crow, and her children: Brian Crow (Candi Crow), Bryan Fuller, Jessica Crow, and Scott Fuller. She was a proud grandmother to Zach Pachack, Graziella Wassenaar, Seth Crow, Ali Crow, and Gina Crow. Sandra was preceded in death by her parents, Robert Lackey and Betty Wright, and her brother, Freddie Lackey.

Sandra's ashes will be laid to rest alongside her father and brother in California at the Arroyo Grande Cemetery. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Sandra's honor to the Alzheimer's Association, supporting research and care for those affected by the disease. Donations can be made at www.alz.org.

Sandra's love, artistry, and dedication to her family will never be forgotten. She will be deeply missed.

Sandy was my best friend in jr hi. We would do everything together. Then I met her brother Freddie Lackey. I instantly fell in love. Sandy and I remained friends when Fred went to Viet Nam. When he came home after 1 year of active duty, we were married. Sandy helped me make my wedding dress. And we remained close until she moved 400 miles away to Reno. It made it difficult to stay in touch. I will always cherish our memories together.
