Jenann Nicole Richards

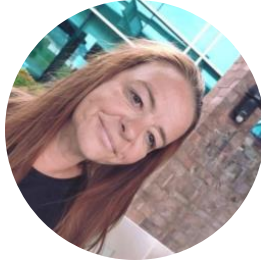

AUG 30, 1973 - APR 8, 2025

With hearts full of love and profound sorrow, we remember the life of Jenann Nicole Richards, who passed away on April 8, 2025. A certified peer support specialist and a fierce advocate for recovery, Jenann touched countless lives with her strength, compassion, and unwavering belief in second chances.

Jenann's soul was most at home under open skies—whether hiking wooded trails, camping by quiet lakes, or feeling the rush of wind in her hair when playing with motorsports. She loved the smell of after rain. Her love for nature and adventure reflected the way she lived: boldly, freely, and with deep appreciation for life's raw beauty.

She was born to Karren Joan Sailer Burr & Leonard William Burr. Mourned by her siblings Larry, Jeff, Norma, Cindie and Claudia. She is survived by her loving children, Adrianna and Kyle, and her grandchildren Magnolia and Linkin, who were her proudest joys, and by the vast recovery community she both belonged to and helped build. Jenann gave her heart without hesitation and was a beacon of hope to so many—her light continues to shine in every life she helped lift up.

Her legacy is not only in the memories she leaves behind, but in the strength she inspired and the love she so freely gave.

She will be missed beyond measure and remembered always.

Services will be held April 19th 2025 3407 W 9625 S South Jordan, UT 84095 United States. Please come and share your stories of this beautiful woman.

I remember you opening your home up to your brother Jeff and our family on more than one occasion when we would come to UT to visit. I remember how you would play and laugh with my kids and hug them tight. I remember you and Lydia reading together on our visits before bed. You loved so deeply. Praising God that I will see you again sister.
