Patricia Louise Lundgreen

JUN 7, 1955 - MAY 7, 2025

Patricia Louise Lundgreen, age 69, of Clearfield, Utah, passed away peacefully on May 7, 2025. Born on June 7, 1955, in Salt Lake City, Utah, Pat lived a life full of faith, laughter, and love.

Pat was the oldest daughter in a family of seven children. She spent many summers with her family on their pontoon boat and camping in their old blue camper. She loved animals, the outdoors, rock hunting, and music. She was very good in school and interested in learning her entire life. She was a good cook and used to grow and can fruit. She was talented and crafty and loved to crochet, much like her mother did. She would show genuine curiosity anytime she came across something or someone new she could learn about, even recently teaching herself how to read and speak Spanish. She loved her daughter, Heather, more than anything in the world.

A faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Pat dedicated many years of service to the Cub Scout program, touching the lives of countless young people and their families. She was also deeply involved in her community through the Utah Blind Center and, more recently, found great joy and friendship through her local Senior Center.

Despite facing numerous health challenges throughout her life, Pat maintained a radiant spirit and an unwaveringly positive attitude. She had a gift for laughter and was known for always having a joke ready to brighten someone's day. Her warmth, resilience, and humor left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Kevan Lundgreen; her daughter, Heather Mackey; her sister, Katherine Walters (Kelly); her brothers, Michael Armstrong (Lauren), Tom Armstrong (Carol), Steven Armstrong, and James Armstrong (Lori). She was preceded in death by her sister, Christine Bernardo (Sergio), and her parents, A. Thomas and Lois Armstrong.

She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and community.
