To the family and loved ones, please know that my heart is with you. You are not alone in your grief, for Anne touched many lives, and we mourn together. I remember fondly the times we worked food bank together or helped with other church events. May God's love wrap around you in this difficult time and bring you peace. With deepest sympathy and love, Stacy Henry

Anne was always the first to volunteer no matter how she was feeling. She put others before herself. We all rejoiced when she accepted Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and let God guide her life. When she knew she wasn't going to make it through the cancer, she knew God was in control and she had peace with it. Love and miss her.
