Edith Lindner Rauh

MAR 3, 1937 - JUL 9, 2025

Edith Lindner Rauh
Edith was known to be kind and loving to all around her. Surrounded by loved ones, our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and aunt passed away peacefully at home on July 9, 2025.

Edith was born on March 3, 1937 to Georg Lindner and Emma Spörl Lindner in Hof, Germany. Growing up during the war developed strength and resilience in her that followed her through life.

On August 17, 1957 Edith married W. Werner Rauh and dedicated her life to family. She was immensely proud of her children and put family at the center of her life. Her dedication to her children was constant. She always supported them, including learning their school subjects so she could help them succeed. Her love of teaching went on after her own children had finished their education when she became a tutor at the community college.

Over the years Edith opened her home to those in need, offering warmth and comfort to those who needed a place to stay. She also fostered children, giving them not just a roof over their head, but the love and support they needed to grow.

As a child Edith played the accordion. Her love for music was transferred to many of her children and grandchildren. While supporting their practice she took the opportunity to increase her musical abilities and learned to play piano and violin. Performing arts was another of her interests, particularly the opera and she enjoyed introducing the arts to her friends and family. For many years she added her voice to the German Choir Harmony.

From the time she was a little child, Edith loved being in nature. She spent endless hours observing plants and animals and gained great knowledge about the environment. Teaching others and raising awareness about the importance of nature and conservation was a big part of her life.

The world has lost an angel, but heaven has gained another. Rest in peace sweet Edith. I enjoyed her wise comments in relief society in the old Riverbend Ward. She was kind to my parents when they were visiting, and would smile and give love to my babies as well. Hers was a life well lived.

We first met Edith, & Werner and their delightful children when we lived in Frankfurt/Bad Vilbel in the mid 70s. We had heard so many wonderful things about this amazing family, whom Lee's brother, Wayne had baptized in the 60s. We visited the Rauh's in Hof, and got to explore their great farm. They later came to visit us in Bad Vilbel and our children all bonded. We kept finding opportunities to get together over the years, either when we all lived in Germany or when they immigrated to the U S. We love them dearly. Edith was kind, sweet, cheerful and a spiritual giant. She served everyone as our Savior taught us to do, and had an unshakable faith. I only hope we can all live our lives so as to be worthy to go where she has gone. We love you Edith! Fly high ☐☐☐
