He was deeply passionate about literacy, children's education, and loved theater, music, and cats. His hobbies included crocheting, weaving, and creating beautiful fiber art. He lived with a positive mindset that was contagious to others and never let obstacles stand in his way. He will be missed and remembered by all those who knew and loved him. His legacy is whom he inspired.

Per Darrin's request, no formal funeral services will take place. Instead, "Thank you for celebrating me on my birthdays, inviting me to holiday gatherings, office parties, and everything in-between. I loved your smiles, your laughter, and always enjoyed your company. Now go read a good book, or watch a movie, or make a wish upon a star if you see one, and live your best life for me."

I am so saddened by this loss and that I missed the notification of his passing. His office was next to mine for a few years and we talked often and sometimes had lunch together. He was a wonderful person and did good work for kids. I'm not sure he knew how much his work friendship meant to me.
