Derek W Moser

AUG 7, 1985 - AUG 4, 2025

Derek W. Moser passed away unexpectedly in his home on August 4, 2025, just three days shy of his 40th birthday.

A proud Navy veteran, Derek later found his passion working as a debt collector and internet troll. We all encouraged him to become a car salesman as he would have been phenomenal.

He cherished his son Kade. Uncle Derry was renowned for being the ultimate snack giver and loved to bully the babies!!

Derek was a deeply loved member of our small family, and his absence will be felt more than words can express. Derek's laugh was one that stuck with you and spread easily.

There is no plan for a service as our family are not really funeral type people. We will plan some type of gathering to hear all of the memories we know our brother left in the hearts of everyone he touched.

Derek is preceded in death by his father, David Wayne Moser; mother, Tami Lane Sarvello; and brother, CJ Sarvello. He is survived by his son Kade Moser; sister Brandie Tiller; brother and sister-in-law Jaedn and Chari Sarvello; sister-in-law Kaysie Sarvello; along with his cherished nephews and nieces.

Well Gaylord McJew you will be missed. We may have been terrible as partners, but you were always a wonderful friend. Thank you for all the laughs and inside jokes, for giving me our beautiful son, for being so good to Jake. If there is an afterlife save me a seat on the porch. I will listen to all your crazy conspiracy theories again and tell you how lame you are.

Sending prayers to his family especially his son and Brandie. I remember him telling me about her often when we're younger.

Sending prayers to all the family. Derek filled my life with so much joy. I definitely considered him a brother. R.i.p.

I worked with Derek at geek squad. He was one of the most memorable people I met there. He always knew what to say to break the awkward moments and get everybody laughing. I wish I could have known him better. But the memories I had with him were always positive and fun.
