Donna Dalene Fielding

JUN 26, 1947 - AUG 13, 2025

Donna Dalene Fielding Our kind and loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother and great grandmother passed on August 13, 2025 at the age of 78.

Dalene is the daughter of Donald and Gloy Linderman born on June 26, 1947 in Malad, Idaho. She graduated from Bonneville High School in 1965. In her youth, she enjoyed roller skating, camping and boating with her parents, siblings, Aunts, Uncles and cousins.

Dalene married the love of her life Clyde Fielding on August 6, 1966 and together they had 4 children. Darren Fielding, Jodene (Richard) Davis, Theron (Emily) Fielding and Shawn (Holly) Fielding. They moved to North Ogden where they raised their family.

Dalene worked for the Weber School District at both Weber High School and Bates Elementary. Dalene loved to crochet, the stuffed animals she made were a favorite for her and the grandkids. The Afghans, baby blankets and doilies she made are treasured by everyone who received them.

She loved square dancing and country western dancing with Clyde, camping with her family, bowling and the occasional trip to Wendover. Dalene was a Scout Leader to her boys and she had the biggest, kindest heart and always wanted to help and give to others whenever she could.

Dalene leaves behind her 4 children, 11 grandchildren- Austin, Colton, Makenna, Jaxson, Justin, Shalee, Tanner, Carter, Jordan, Lexie and Preslie. 7 great grandchildren- Easton, Hagen, Lakota Tay, Haylee, Barrett, Casen and Jakob. Her sister LaRue Linderman and brother Quentin Linderman.

She is preceded in death by her husband Clyde, parents, sister Annette, brother Donald and a great grandson Jake. The family would like to give a special thanks to the staff of The Auberge Assisted Living & Memory Care North Ogden, for taking such good care of our mother.
