When Paul and his family lived in the Avenues of Salt Lake City, we hung out together, mostly during our years at Judge Memorial High School. During the summers Paul would hang at our house. We had a ping pong table set up in the garage and he was very good at that game, I think I only bested him once maybe twice. We also had Bridge, yes the card game and Beer, yes, mostly Coors Light, on Friday nights about twice a month. Paul was also very good and very competitive at that game. We would usually have a couple of tables going. Good times...My condolences to the family~Doug French
