Judy Weber

MAR 25, 1946 - SEP 6, 2025

Judy Weber passed peacefully on September 6, 2025, in American Fork, Utah, after a period of declining health due to Alzheimer's.

Judy Kay Phillips was born on March 25, 1946, to Chester and Marian Phillips, in Bremerton, Washington, while her father was stationed there with the Navy.

Judy spent her early years in Goodland, Kansas, before moving to Golden, Colorado. She is preceded in death by her parents, Chester and Marian, and her brother, Jerry Phillips, who was killed in Vietnam. Judy married Norman Hardinger on August 10, 1966, in Applewood, Colorado. Norman preceded her in death in 1986.

On February 2, 1972, they adopted Jason, who became the heart of her world. Being his mom was her greatest delight and purpose, and everything in her life centered around him. Her joy only grew with the arrival of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Known lovingly as "Gram Cookie," Judy delighted in spoiling them with their favorite treats and their most-wanted gifts for birthdays and Christmas. She was a constant presence in their lives, enthusiastically supporting their activities, milestones, and everyday joys. She leaves behind her cherished son, Jason Hardinger (Sarah), and seven grandchildren: Kashae (Aaron) Anderson, Walker Hardinger, Trevin (Celeste) Hardinger, Gavin Hardinger, Ridge Hardinger, Brekelle Yardley (Haylan Yergensen), and Stetson (Taya) Yardley; and five great-grandchildren: Remi, Pippa, and Asher Anderson; Lincoln Hardinger; and Evie Yardley.

Judy worked in banking and finance throughout her career, where she created some of her dearest friendships. A loyal Denver Broncos fan, Judy loved cheering on her team. She enjoyed traveling, joining her family on countless trips and adventures, and challenging herself with crossword puzzles that kept her sharp.

Judy faced Alzheimer's with grace, supported by the love of her family and the compassionate care of her hospice team and the staff at Bel Aire Senior Living in American Fork. Her family
