Brenda Diane (Bond) Lowry

NOV 30, 1952 - SEP 26, 2025

November 30, 1952 - September 26, 2025

Brenda was a firecracker who loved and lived fiercely. She was a fighter who stood up for those she loved and for what she believed in. She was generous with her heart, time, and resources, and her family constantly grew as she took others under her wing when they needed her most. She is survived by her children, Rachelle (Lowry) Roberts, Mathew Douglas Lowry, and Melissa Diane (Lowry) Lewis. She is also survived by eight grandchildren; her siblings, Sandra, Nelda, and Tim; and a large extended family. She was preceded in death by her former husband, Douglas, with whom she shared many happy years; her parents, Alfreda and Ellis; her brother, Ronald; and several beloved extended family members.

A private memorial service will be held with her children in Utah, with another private service by invitation only in Gulfport, Mississippi, at which time her ashes will be laid to rest alongside those of her family. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in her honor to support Alzheimer's research.

The family wishes to extend heartfelt gratitude to the staff at Valencia of Draper, who made her feel loved, happy, safe, and comfortable in her final years. Brenda Diane (Bond) Lowry, age 72, of Draper,

Obituary

Brenda Diane (Bond) Lowry

NOV 30, 1952 - SEP 26, 2025

Utah,
passed away on September 26, surrounded by her loved ones.

Brenda was born on November 30, 1952, in South Bend, Indiana, to Alfreda (Holmes) and Ellis Bond.

She was a popular student who loved the arts and attended nursing school before marrying and starting a family. Throughout her life, she worked as a life insurance agent, dental technician, ballroom dance teacher, and secretary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints' Institute of Religion.

Brenda will be remembered for her love of art, dance, and all things beautiful. She was the consummate hostess—known for planning grand dinners, parties, and even weddings for friends and family, entirely gratis. She provided the décor, food, and often baked and decorated the cakes herself. She was a devoted wife and mother, with her family always being her highest priority. As a grandmother, she was completely devoted to her grandchildren and desired nothing more than to be surrounded by their love and laughter.

Sandy Garrard posted:

Brenda was a very kind friend. When I was going through a divorce, she went out of her way to visit me at work and tried to comfort me. She loaned me her car once to drive my two daughters back to school at BYU. I left her car there for Melissa to use, taking a bus back home. But she was very generous letting me have that vehicle to get them to Utah. I always appreciated that gesture. She was so encouraging to everyone around her, especially to her friends from church. We all loved her. I look forward to seeing her again when I make that same journey she just made.
