Kay Maree Fox Edgel

JUL 22, 1942 - OCT 23, 2025

Kay Maree Fox Edgel, beloved wife, mother, stepmother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and sister, passed away peacefully on October 23, 2025.

Kay's warmth and compassion lifted everyone she met. With a heart full of love, an unforgettable laugh, (and an amazing lemon cheesecake), Kay dedicated herself to her family, friends, and community. She found purpose and joy being a devoted wife and mother.

Kay married Reed Edgel in 1981 and became a stepmother to his five children. She and Reed shared 45 happy years together before he died in March 2025. Kay is survived by her daughter, Leslie Kay Potter (David), Bill Edgel (Tricia), David Edgel (Carol), Michael Edgel (Tony), Todd Edgel, Heather Edgel Dodd, 14 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren. She is also cherished by her surviving stepchildren with her second husband, Dr. Harold Max Cutler (deceased, 1978), and her surviving siblings, Elaine Maxwell, Dianne Coombs (Earl), and Ken Fox.

Kay's unwavering faith, her commitment to the gospel, and her selfless service were her most defining characteristics. She was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints throughout her life. She served in many capacities, often as Relief Society President, where her compassion and leadership nurtured and guided countless women. She also served as a Salt Lake Temple worker for over two decades, offering her time, energy, and love in support of the sacred work performed in the temple. Kay's passing leaves a deep void in the hearts of all who knew her, but her legacy of love, faith, family, and kindness will endure in our memories of her.

A viewing will be held on Friday, October 31st from 6-8 p.m. at Premier Funeral Home, 67 East 8000 South, Sandy, UT. A graveside service will take place on Saturday, November 1st at 10 a.m. at Memorial Lake Hills, 10055 South State St., Sandy, UT. The funeral will follow at 11:30 a.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1361 East 4000 South, SLC, UT.

Mama Kay I love you and will miss you dearly! I am so glad for all the time we got to spend together (especially once you forgot all the naughty stuff I did as a child sometime in your 80s ; >) I'll never forget our last conversation... You called me to share some sadness and dark thoughts about the confusion and disorientation you were feeling. You couldn't shake the feeling you were forgetting things or letting people down. I told you it wasn't your job to stress about that anymore because we carry the memories of how you showed up for us and taught each of your children everything we needed to know to to serve others and to be good friends to each other. I reminded you that each of your children were thriving and living good lives full of joy. Your tone of voice immediately changed and you said "Oh good! Well thank you so much for sharing that and for cheering me right up. I just love you so much son." You lost the ability to use your phone independently just a few days later, and we never spoke again (until I told you "I love you" over a speakerphone Heather held up for me on your last night before you left us for the great beyond). The memory of your hard work, inclusiveness, sharp wit, and kind laughter lives on in me as well as my brothers, sisters, your grandchildren, your great-grandchildren, and the countless people you added to your "family" and welcomed into your home. Your definition of "family" was so broad that I must freely admit I had to shake my head sometimes at the people who had the audacity to take advantage of that loose and inclusive definition! But at the end of the day, you taught me that you cant take advantage of a person who gives of themself freely, joyfully, and with zero expectation of any "return on investment". You taught me and many others about joy in giving/serving. Really gonna miss you calling just to check on me Mom! P.S. One last thing. Thank you for teaching me (and my entire Boy Scout troop that you led for several months in the absence of a male scout leader) how to hand sew! Saved me a bundle on a canvas soft top vinyl window replacement for my car just this last month!
