O bituary — Kimball Heywood Webb

If you knew Kimball Heywood Webb, you likely remember his laugh first – the kind that filled a room and made you feel like you belonged there. Born on June 9, 1952, in Holladay, Utah, Kimball lived 73 years guided by faith, humor, and a genuine love for people.

An active and devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Kimball served a mission in Georgia, where he first experienced the warmth and hospitality he would later find again.

He studied at the University of Utah before discovering his true calling in carpentry, where he built not only houses but places for families to grow. As the founder of Taylor Ashwood Homes, Kim believed that craftsmanship was a form of care, that the details mattered because people mattered. His business card read “A taste of chocolate in a vanilla world,” and anyone who knew him would agree that he knack for doing things just a little differently.

Some of his kiddos’ happiest memories growing up with their dad were summer days sailing the Hobie Cat on Bear Lake, camping on the beaches of Lake Powell, and long drives through southern Utah with the windows rolled down and everyone singing James Taylor.

A dedicated marathoner for more than 40 years, Kim proudly joined the 30-Year Club at his favorite, the St. George Marathon, and crossed finish lines across Utah. He also dedicated more than 15 years to volunteering at Primary Children’s Hospital, handing out hundreds of marathon medals to young fighters who inspired him every day.

Kim made everyone feel like they were his best friend. He was never shy about lending a hand, fixing what was broken, or brightening someone’s day with a joke and that trademark grin. In the years that followed, he found companionship and love with his Southern Belle, Pahla, and great joy in the family who welcomed him as their own. In the last few years of his life, the love and laughter he shared with Pahla's family became a reminder of how deeply he was loved in return.

He is survived by his wife, Pahla; his daughters Alisa, Lindsey, Hayley, Taylor, and Katie; his son Hayden; his sister Jill; and brothers Larry and Russell. He is preceded in death by his parents, Virgil and Marian Webb, and his brother, Doug Webb.

Kim's legacy lives on in the laughter he shared and the kindness he gave. He often reminded others to "keep some sunshine on your face." For all who loved him, the warmth of the sun will forever be a reminder of his spirit, his light, and the joy he brought into this world.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 15, at 11:00 a.m. at 12232 S 3200 W, Riverton, UT 84065. A viewing will be held at the same location prior to the service from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m.

He will be laid to rest at Larkin Sunset Lawn Memorial Park.

With love,
The Kiddos

Kim will be missed. I had the privilege and honor of being his minister (home teacher) for over 15 years. We will miss his wit and kindness. At a scouting event we won a tile job from him (he graciously donated his time). I have beautiful tile in my upstairs bathroom. We both love Utah football and every game we text back and forth. I really missed our texts last Saturday. He even gave me a garden sized Utah flag. I proudly display it in the front of my house. Kim was a spiritual giant and all around great man. My son just left on a mission and he told my son seven days with no prayer makes a week (you weak). Kim my family eternally loved you. Till we meet again.

Oh how we love Kimball H Wood. 39 years ago we were babies wanting to build a home, he showed us his beautiful home and said let me build this exact home for you, but just a little better!!! He came to Tremonton, Utah and lived with us during the week and built our dream home!! We laughed and I cooked what ever he wanted at night for supper. We learned so much and became lifelong friends!!! When we were ready to do the finish work on our basement 10 years later, who showed up on our doorsteps, Kimball himself. He didn't want us to mess up "his" house. We stillLive in our dream home. Many of his touches will always remind me of his talent and the pride he took in his craft!!!We love you Kimball, give my sissy Nancy a big hug and know your laugh will be so missed!!! Sending our condolences to your family!!! He was the best!!!!

Kimball and I participated in the 1986 St. George Marathon. My time was 3 hours and 40 minutes. I waited to see my dear friend Kimball cross the finish line. After six hours from the start of the Marathon the organizers had finished cleaning the up the race. Everyone had gone home. But then in the distance I saw Kimball still moving forward. When he crossed the finish line a sports reporter from KSL came up to him and asked, "Were you in the Marathon?" Kim answered, "Yes." The reporter said most all runners had been done for hours. He further asked Kimball why he put himself through such pain and anguish?" Kimball replied, "Far better to enjoy and suffer much to win glorious triumphs though checkered by failure than to take rank with those that no not victory or defeat." The sports reporter went nuts with Kimball's reply. The next night during sports the reporter told Kimball's story.

I had the honor of knowing Kim for 30 years. Kim always had a smile on his face and was pleasant to be around. He would refer to himself as "Brother Web" so that's what we would call him. Kim will be missed by all of us that had the pleasure of knowing him. We love you Kim! Rest in peace!
