Jon Alan Billesbach

FEB 18, 1955 - NOV 16, 2025

Jon Alan Billesbach was an amazing man with all the bad dad jokes in his back pocket. He was a very loving father and grandfather. He loved all his nieces and nephews. He had his own special way to express his love to the ones he loved the most.

Jon had a passion for Nascar and watched it faithfully. He loved watching Nebraska cornhuskers even though he knew they would lose he rooted them on. He watched his very loved and faithful team San Francisco 49ers and his love for the team spilled on to some of us kids.

Jon lived a simple life. Jon had the best careers. He enjoyed Working on aircraft. He got to travel the world and do what he loved. He could tell you all the different aircrafts he worked on. After he retired in aircraft Jon switched to being the most incredible pressman. It was kind of embarrassing at times, looking at paper crafts and business cards. He could tell you the press used the ink used and all the different colors used.

He loved watching his grandkids play sports. He was there for every practice and game.

Jon is survived by his 4 children Amie her children Austin and Alexander. Jennifer and her children Brandon , Trevor, and Hayden and jons great granddaughters Lilly and Selene. Ashlee (husband Beau Cavnar) her children Jaslyn, Damien, Kaysen, Emberlyn, Max and Dax. Edward(his wife Tayiah Fuller) his son Dalton.

Jon lived his remaining life well loved and his memories and stories will carry on forever.

BASED ON A REAL MOMENT WITH JON AND MYSELF. Every time I would see or talk to Jon, all I had to do is mention "SCHLITZ STOUT MALT LIQUOR, WITH SUGAR" , he would bust out LAUGHING REAL LOUD, and we would keep reminding ourselves of what was funny and start busting up all over again. BTW, the reason it was so funny was that the drink was bitter ,so I decided to put sugar in it,,,,,,,,, ,AND IT EXPLODED ! YOU HAD TO BE THERE , IT WAS FUNNY AS HECK ! MISS YOU JON, GLAD I WAS ABLE TO SEE YOU THE WEEK BEFORE JESUS CALLED YOU, IT HAS BEEN AN HONOR TO BE YOUR FRIEND. LuvYa BROTHER !
