Shannon Kay Prazen

OCT 24, 1958 - FEB 10, 2026

Shannon Kay Prazen, born on October 24, 1958, passed away peacefully on February 10, 2026, surrounded by her loved ones. Throughout her life, Shannon was known for her unwavering devotion to those she cared about. As a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, she embraced every role with compassion and generosity, leaving a legacy of love and dedication that will be cherished for generations.

Shannon's kindness extended far beyond her immediate family. She created a home that was always open, welcoming family and friends with a warm smile and a listening ear. Her visits were filled with laughter, stories, and a sense of belonging that made everyone feel included. Shannon's spirit and nurturing nature provided comfort during difficult times, and her steadfast encouragement inspired those around her to pursue their dreams.

She is survived by her partner Dave Atkinson and her children, Scott (Melissa) Clark, Stuart (Cathy) Clark, and Savannah (Jesse) Freitas, each of whom benefited from her wisdom and guidance throughout their lives. Her brothers, Mark D. Prazen and Adrian (Rachel) Prazen, and her sister, Machele (Kenneth) Sandoval. Her grandchildren, Clint, Allie, Austin, Skyler, Cayden, Cooper, Aidan, and Jessica, and great-grandchildren, Axel and Briar, were the light of her life, and her relationship with them was marked by joy, laughter, and endless affection. Her nieces and nephews, Randy, Jillian, Chase, Ayla, Trinity, Kenny, Sherri, Ellen, and Veanus, will always treasure the special moments spent with their aunt.

Shannon's legacy will live on in her family: the importance of kindness, generosity, and perseverance. Each member carries a piece of her spirit, reflecting her influence in their daily lives.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John and Carol Prazen, Siblings Randy Lee Prazen and Marlon (Terrie Thurman) Prazen, keeping their memories alive through family traditions and stories.
