Kevin Lee Kennell

JUL 14, 1953 - JAN 13, 2026

It's with great sadness we announce the passing of Kevin Lee Kennell. Born July 14, 1953 in Salt Lake City. He was a longtime Murray-ite, attended Arlington, Riverview Jr. High and Murray High School. Kevin served in the Army for two years in Germany. He worked for Old Home Bakery until he retired.

Kevin enjoyed golfing with his brothers and friends.

We want to thank the Hospice Team, Heather and Mary.

He has many nephews and nieces, special niece Amy and Cousin Ann.

Survived by daughter Tara, Grandsons Logan & Lane, Granddaughter Lil-Lee, sister Carol, brother Walt, sister in law Ralphine and brother in law Duane. Good friends Joel, Dodi and Tommy.

Preceded in death his parents, son Terrance, daughter Tess, sisters Ellie and Kathy and brothers John and Bud.

God speed little brother.

Words can't describe Kevin's big heart and generosity. Just before his passing he was having good dreams of his younger years. Good times at Murray swimming pool and his little league baseball game, which he struck out 18 players in one day. He hold the record of Murray Little League Baseball games of striking out 18 players in one game. You go little brother, love you big sister Carol. God Bless You!!
