Carol Jean Purdy Guy

NOV 10, 1940 - APR 1, 2026

Carol Jean Purdy Guy, 85, left this life on 1 April, 2026 at her home with her five daughters by her side.

She was born on November 10, 1940 in Ogden, Utah to Bernice Kruitbosch Purdy and Edmund (Ted) Purdy.

She attended Ben Lomond High School where she was a proud Scot cheerleader.

Carol was married to Richard Gardiner, James Eldridge, Joseph Nattress and Charles Guy. From these marriages came six children, Shelly (Ray) Clark, Sherry Eldridge, Christy (Gary) Kuni, Lisa Martinez, Tracey (Rick) Gee, and Cameron Nattress.

She enjoyed working in her grandfather's orchards as a teenager. She and Joe owned and operated a small business (Trade Wind Imports) in downtown Ogden. She held numerous retail jobs. She retired from the federal government as an accounting technician.

She loved reading, gardening, shopping and yearly mother-daughter trips. She was active in her younger years, cross country and downhill skiing, kayaking, bike riding, hiking and walking. She was a beautiful young-looking woman and loved when people thought she was one of her daughter's sister.

She is survived by her daughters Shelly, Sherry, Christy, Lisa and Tracey. She was predeceased by her parents and only son Cameron, which was the heartbreak of her life. She is also survived by brothers John Purdy and Robert (Sylvia) Purdy. She leaves behind 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her beloved yorkie Roxy.

The family would like to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to her hospice team, Jan Postel and Cassidi. We can never thank them enough for their tender treatment.

This first time I met Carol she was the sweetest / warmest lady you could encounter. My wife Bernice, her granddaughter took me to visit her in this really cool cabin in the winter. We talked, laughed, and she treated me with kindness and acceptance despite being relatively new in our relationship. She made the best fried potatoes which I will remember to this day. I met her many more times over the following years, and she always jumped to say hi and engage in conversation when we got together. I always saw her with a smile and I am happy she is now at rest as our Human bodies sometimes age and eventually fail us. Her spirit was strong and her love deep. She was tough as nails and had been through many things in her life. Her kin the same. A tough breed of women they are in those mountains. But had a heart of gold. Cam and Carol are now running together through the clouds, once again. They had such a strong bond and loved each other so much. I am still amazed that Carol got into Cross country skiing and was very active and soaked in life during a particular relationship. - God Speed Carol. Your where unique and loved. - Love Michael Z
