Remembering a Life of Kindness and Dedication

Jeanne Carol Thayer, a beloved friend and devoted member of her community, passed away peacefully on April 9, 2026, after a prolonged illness. Throughout her illness, Jeanne demonstrated remarkable strength and grace, inspiring everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.

Known for her gentle spirit, Jeanne touched the lives of all she encountered through her kindness and dedication. She was deeply committed to her friends and family, always offering her unwavering support and compassion. Jeanne cherished time spent at home, where she found comfort in quiet moments and enjoyed crocheting.

Her warmth, generosity, and steadfast support for others will be remembered fondly by everyone whose life she touched.

Jeanne was preceded in death by her parents, her sister, and extended family. There is comfort in knowing that she was joyfully reunited with them in heaven.
