

Andrew Jared Begg

April 22, 1998 - August 29, 2020

In the late night/early morning hours of August 29, 2020, Andrew Jared Begg left this world behind after losing control of his vehicle on the Upper Setting Road in the Wasatch-Uinta-Cache National Forest.

Whether you knew him as AJ, Jared, or the rare Andrew, the impression he left was resounding. He was a quick-witted smart ass with a knack for inciting laughter and sometimes (read: often) pushing buttons. His confidence was enviable—there was little he was afraid of and nothing he would not do for those he loved. He took naturally to just about everything at which he tried his hand, from athletic endeavors to mechanical skills. He was incredibly hard headed, fiercely loyal, and truly golden hearted.

AJ's sudden, tragic departure has left his loved ones reeling, but we are clinging to our many happy memories of our son, brother, partner, and friend. He will be deeply, eternally missed.

Out of respect for social distancing restrictions in the midst of the ongoing pandemic (and because it's not what he would have wanted) we have decided not to hold a formal funeral but will instead be celebrating his memory in an intimate setting with family and close friends.

If you are so inclined, in lieu of flowers please consider donating to the family's fundraiser for the NAACP Legal Defense Fund in AJ's loving memory.

<https://gf.me/u/yvbjzh>

Comments

“ Jared and I were not close the last 2 years but I have never felt more heartache then when I had heard this news. I only knew Jared for about 5 years but those 5 years were the most eventful, laughter-filled and memorable years I have to date and I have Jared to thank for that. Rest in peace buddy you will truly be missed but never forgotten.

-Nic Breinholt

Nic Breinholt - September 10, 2020 at 04:30 PM

“ I knew AJ in elementary school. We all knew he was going to live his life on his terms. I am heartbroken he didn't have more time to live his passions. I know his death leaves a hole no one can fill or heal the pain, but I am praying for all of his loved ones to find peace and comfort. With love and sadness, Eileen Barlage

Eileen Barlage - September 03, 2020 at 03:41 PM