“ Three years have past and still I mourn the loss of my sweet friend. In you I found a kindred spirit, and a confidante. Charming as the day is long, I will forever miss your humor, your intelligence, your conviction and most of all your friendship which helped me beyond measure at a time when I needed it most. I would gladly face those challenges again if it meant reuniting and spending time with you. You had more than your share of challenges yet one would never guess this to be the case as you greeted all with your never ending smile. Soft spoken and demure in nature I found it effortless to share with you my struggles while at the same time gladly providing a shoulder for you to lean on as well. I will forever love you and miss you my sweet dear friend Ashley.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went to jr high and high school with Ashley. I had the opportunity to meet her darling little one not too long ago. I will never forget her laughter or her smile, doodling silly notes to each other in class, or more recently the conversations we shared on motherhood, cosmetology, and God. I know she will rest peacefully, my hope and prayers are with the family as you all learn to adjust to a new normal. There will be happy days ahead. Lean on the Lord.
Much love,
