

Bert J Hone

December 23, 1938 - January 15, 2020

Bert J. Hone passed away peacefully on January 15, 2020, with family by his side. He had battled dementia and macular degeneration, along with bladder cancer. He was born December 23, 1938, to Everett and Verge Higginson Hone at home in Benjamin, Utah. He had 9 siblings, and was the last of his brothers and sisters to pass away.

He married Raona Hatfield, and they had 2 children, Jeff and Annie. They later divorced. He later married Ethel Tranchell Hatfield, and took on the role of father and grandfather to her children and grandchildren. Bert was a cement finisher his whole life. After he retired, he went on to stain concrete. He loved hunting, fishing, camping and gardening. He could grow anything. I was even told he could grow licorice and he did a fine job of it.

His surviving children include Jeff Hone (Sherry), Annie Hone Barrett (Brad), Rick Clayson (Rozanne), Marsha Tilby (Robin), Brett Lindsay (Pam Cleavenger), and Brent Lindsay (Tina). He had many grand and great grandchildren that he loved dearly. Bert was preceded in death by his parents and all nine of his siblings, as well as his wife, Ethel Hone, children Jackie (Dennis) Bird and Blaine Hatfield, grandchildren Bo Driggs and Travis Lindsay, and great-grandchildren Patia Christensen and Kayden Jensen.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, February 1, 2020 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at Premier Funeral Services, located at 5335 South 1950 West, Roy, UT.

“ Oh, Bert! I worked at one of the facilities where Bert lived for a while. I sure did miss him when he moved. He was known as "The Candy Man" for always having candy with him and loving to share it with others. I also remember taking him fishing a few years ago! If the family wants pictures, please let me know. He was such a happy, friendly, lovable man!

“ I remember being out on a boat with Bert and my own father (Don Hone) at Strawberry reservoir. We had a healthy stringer full of big fish (before the lake level was raised). Bert lifted the stringer off the oar post to show someone passing by, and set it back down but missed the post and lost the entire morning's catch! We laughed ourselves silly over that. Bert was also known earlier in his life for his mutton stew recipe. Lastly, whenever I would pass through Mesquite, Nevada and stay at the hotels, the staff would always ask how I was related. They would regale with stories of his caramels and other baked goods he was always bringing the staff. He was a good older brother to my father, and I always enjoyed talking with him and playing Bingo with him when visiting Mesquite. Rest in peace, Uncle Bert.
