

Bree Ann Lebo

March 25, 1975 - February 23, 2019

Our sweet Bree was called home on Saturday, February 23rd, 2019. She was met by her Grandpa Bill. Bree was anything but ordinary and anyone who ever met her could tell you that. She was loud, funny, loving, smart, and most of all kind. She could come on strong, but her infectious personality and booming laugh always won people over. We will miss that laugh most of all. Once you knew her, you'd quickly find out her favorite things were pink, fluffy and/or sparkly. Not to mention her unique obsession with Hello Kitty. While some of us didn't understand it, we all supported it! It was what made Bree...Bree.

As her father says, she came in during a heck of a storm on March 25th, 1975 in Ogden, Utah. Being the only girl in a family of 2 boys, Bree taught her brothers to never back down from anything and she was never one to back down or shy away from helping another person or animal. She'd bring home other children who were hurt or sad to cheer them up or tend to their wounds. She did the same with animals. There was rarely a time that she didn't have a cat, dog, or even a duck as a companion. This kindness was ever present throughout her life.

She was a loving mother to 3 remarkable children, Nikk, Brittnee, and Dez. She loved each of them so much; she was always telling people how proud she was of them. She supported them in anything they chose to do, never questioning, and was always accepting. If they needed her, she was there ready to embrace them in a warm and strong hug. You could feel her love and energy any time she embraced you, no matter if you were her child or not. She just loved with all of her heart.

In May 2010 from across the driveway of her apartment, she locked eyes with Jason Lebo and they both knew in that one instance that life for each of them would never be the same. She called out, "Hey neighbor boy!" to him but he would play hard to get. After their first kiss, a true and never-ending romance blossomed. The love they had for each other was palpable. You could feel it when they were together. Love like that is rare and once you get it, you never let it go, so they married on July 2nd, 2016 in front of an intimate crowd of family and friends. Her kids walked her down the aisle while Jason looked adoringly at her.

Bree worked at the IRS and while there, she found a second home. She loved her coworkers and made many lifelong friends. If there was a holiday, they dressed up! They went to lunch together, they hung out together, and they were all true friends. Her IRS family was incredibly important to her and they will truly miss her.

Bree and Jason would go on to build a wonderful life together. Whether it was buying their house, going camping, or playing with their dog Buddy, they both put their all into everything they did. Even in the worst of times, Jason never left her side. She will be greatly missed by him and her children.

Bree is survived by her husband, Jason Lebo; her children Nikk, Brittnee, and Dez; her mother Judy Eyre-Brewer (David) and father Steven Toennis (Arlene); and her two brothers, Iven and Lazlo (Crystal); grandmother Jean Colin Toennis, and grandmother Helen Sharp Eyre. Also surviving are many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews that all cherished her. Her in-laws held a special place in her heart: Patricia Lebo (Val Martinez), Tom Lebo (Kathy and her children), her two sisters Julie Lebo (Joshua Redbeard), and Sarah Douglass (Jason). They will miss her more than words can express.

A viewing will be held on Saturday, March 2nd from noon to 2 p.m. at Premier Funeral Services, 5335 1950 W St, Roy, UT 84067. There will also be a ceremony of life event following the viewing from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. to be held at the Veteran of Foreign Wars building, 1389 Main St, Layton, UT 84041. In lieu of flowers, memorials to the family are appreciated. There is an account set up at America First Credit Union under the name Bree Lebo, account number 9107988.

Bree, you will be forever missed by each and every one of us but you will never be forgotten. Our wife, mother, sister, daughter, aunt, and friend, will live on in the hearts of those that love her. We will miss the heck out of you, but we take comfort in knowing your pain has ended and you are at peace. We love you.

Comments

---

“ When you were born and had the cutest little cone head all night i dreamt of outting bows oand ribbons on your head the next day qhen they brought you ro my room you were perfect and i said my baby has a cone head they said no we molded her head you had bright red fuzzy hair so sweet and always smiling as soon as you learned to laugh you never stopped. Your first day of school you were so scared by the second day you had lots of friends. You never changed. Youd be mad at me then forguve me i loved you so much. You loved your brothers so much and always stood up for them. Boy you would have told everyone off for how your baby brother was treated that day. You had so many aunts, uncles, neices ,cousins i wish you had shared your family with your in-laws . They never knew the person we all did. Im sorry that this family wasnt included more. At least i know you were happy the last nine years and loved that gave me the strength to move to Alaska. I love you and will hold you in my heart until we are together again. You are in peace my baby.

Judy Eyre - March 10, 2019 at 08:29 PM

---

“ I met Bree and Judy at the IRS. Bree would have EVERYONE laughing! If you were down, you were in a GREAT mood after just being around Bree for a minute or two. I am going to miss her and her laugh!
I am so sorry for your loss.

Rhea - March 07, 2019 at 09:31 AM

---

“ Lo Lo lit a candle in memory of Bree Ann Lebo

Lo Lo - March 03, 2019 at 02:02 PM

---

“ Bree, oh my friend bree. I am so beyond sad to hear of your passing. I've thought about u so so much and have wanted to contact u. Now I regret not doing so more than u can ever imagine. U are one of a kind girl! U know how to brighten up a room and can turn anyone's sad or mad mood to laughter in minutes. Your going to be missed tremendously. I know that when the sky is lit up so beautiful and the stars are shining so bright that that will be Mrs. Bree bouncing her beauty around to cheer everyone up. I love u girl. I'm sorry.....

Lo Lo - March 03, 2019 at 02:01 PM

---

“ Today as I went to say my last goodbye to my friend, I saw a man I'd never met before, as I knew Bree from work, I was standing behind a man who I immediately knew was Bree's husband, I knew because I watched this man, with a tear stained shirt, lovingly reach for a flower from a vase, he took it, and placed it next to her, and then another, he then realized my husband and I were there.
I have many memories of Bree, she was my friend, and I will miss her, but I will never forget the love and loss that I saw today from my friends husband Jason, I'm so sorry for your loss,

Vicky Lobato - March 03, 2019 at 02:15 AM

---

“ I can only imagine how difficult this time must be for you all. While words fail to capture the pain of losing a loved one, we can look forward to the time when words will fail to capture the joy of having our heavenly Father return your dear Bree to you. God's written word assures us "that there is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15). Life will be the way God meant for us to live. There will be no more sickness, death, tears or pain. (Isaiah 33:24; Revelation 21:4). May you find comfort in the treasured memories of your dear Bree. Please accept my deepest sympathy and a warm invitation for you to find more comfort at JW.ORG

L Flores - March 02, 2019 at 11:44 AM

---

“ I knew the first time I saw you that you were special. I was so glad that I got to share some special moments with you. Pat is your mother in law and i am Vals mother so I consider you and Jason as my grandchildren. You will be missed. I know you are resting and nothing can hurt you anymore. We will see each other one day in a Paradise earth. Grandma Josie

Josie Martinez - March 01, 2019 at 01:59 PM

“ I remember sitting on those awful stairs for hours talking and drinking watermelon pucker and Squirt. The pain was worth it because I made the most amazing friend. Thank you for always being there. I love you.

Brandy - March 03, 2019 at 09:35 PM

“ Bree , I have known you for so many years and the memories are many . One that sticks out the most and was a very fun one was singing Karaoke at Rowducks in Ogden singing Concrete Blondes lol. If it were not for your encouragement and fearlessness I never would of got up there . You were an amazing woman , kind , loving, passionate, driven, friendly , outspoken, and much more . I loved being around you , you made me smile and you always made me feel good about myself and you taught me to love myself no matter what anyone else thought . You are forever in my heart and will be forever loved and missed more than you could ever imagine . We will meet again and will laugh about all the crazy things we use to do . Life will forever be different for so many people . I love and miss you until we meet again . Rest in peace beautiful .

Jeremy Hultz - March 01, 2019 at 01:22 PM

“ Beautiful Bree. I have so many memories of the fun loving, bright, cheerful woman I had the pleasure of being friends with. You made every day shine bright. Having you in my life the last 12 years has been more than amazing. I love you my sweet friend. To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I pray for each and everyone of you to find peace in this difficult time.

Tara Jonas - February 28, 2019 at 10:15 PM

“ Lit a candle in memory of Bree Ann Lebo

TRACY REED - February 28, 2019 at 04:51 PM

---

“ I remember meeting Bree the first and being told by her, I like you ..youre a smart ass too...really I said and smiled. With Bree you couldn't help but smile...
Jason I'm so very sorry for your loss, may the lord bless and keep you...love Aunt Jan

Jan Sanchez - February 28, 2019 at 03:21 PM

---

“ My most memorable moment with Bree is a ditty that goes a little something like this..

The hootchy kootchy was born, underneath a porch
yeah yeah, born underneath a porch.
The hootchy kootchy is a couch on wheels

...

You had an amazing spirit and personality. You were loved and will continue to be loved.

Cher Farnsworth - February 28, 2019 at 01:58 PM

---

“ My precious niece more like a sister how am I ever going to live with out in my life. I know you are still with us in spirit. I see all people that you helped and loved. Makes me so proud of you! I watched you grow fom a little girl to a brave courageous woman who loved life! you overcame so many obstacles you were so strong!
You never complained and had so much hope.
You will always be in my heart forever!
I know you are dancing in the sky with Grandpa.

Karla Barrera - February 28, 2019 at 12:28 PM

“ And she is laughing that very contagious laugh! Love you, Karla

Rhea - March 07, 2019 at 09:34 AM

---

“ Dear Jason, although we knew Bree only a short time, it was long enough to know how much she loved you. It was a delight to visit with her....she fit in so well with the blended Lebo family. We will always remember her energy and kind, loving friendly ways. We know your immediate family will be there for you in the diificult times ahead but please remember that we are here for you also should you need ANYTHING.

All our love,
Aunt Cathy and Uncle Ken

Cathy & Ken Person - February 28, 2019 at 11:56 AM

---

“ I worked with Bree if she was near you you were laughing. Bree will be missed by me and many.

Barbara Vadnais - February 28, 2019 at 11:23 AM

---

“ Bree was an absolute treasure and delight. I have many favorite memories, camping, fishing, boating, her and Jason's wedding, everything we did together we had fun. I will miss her so much.

Pat Lebo - February 28, 2019 at 11:17 AM

---

“ I'm lost for words my sweet Bree. There are too many memories to recount here. I will cherish all of them. The circle of Life , in a circle there is no beginning or ending, you are just on a new journey across the veil. I love you. Jason, Brit ,Nic and Dez you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Bree is with you all always, look for the signs that she gives you, she will always be near. Till we met again on the other side Bree. Merry Met, Merry part till we met again. XOXOOXOO

Jenifer Payton - February 28, 2019 at 11:14 AM

“ Bree was one of a kind. Her sweet strange gifts and tokens always had her love for you. Her and Jennifer Payton gave me a can of creamed corn saying “I was the cream of the crop”. Dear sweet Bree, you are by far the “Cream of the Crop”. I will forever cherish the impact you had on my by being you.

Sheri Steed - February 28, 2019 at 11:00 PM