“ Tina, I was so saddened to hear of this horrible accident, then as I read the beautiful obit & saw Brent's wife Tina Williams was also injured, my thoughts went directly to the Tina Williams I worked with years ago & I vaguely remembered your husbands name as Brent, Tina, have you physically recovered from your injuries? I can't even begin to understand the heartache you & your sweet kids & grandbabies are feeling, it sickens me to think you have to suffer with this great loss of your partner & best friend & father to your children, Had I seen this earlier, I would have attended the service. I also live in West Valley & would love to help you anyway I can., I don't know how to reach you. If you FB, look for LeslieSnow, I'm standing in front of my horse. Sending you courage & a warm embrace Tina

“ To the Williams/Stevenson Family - I'm extremely torn to hear the passing of "Pete". Many years ago, he was like a little brother to me. Brent often joked and teased as if he were my brother. I remember him always fixing or replacing something on his car and working at the station . I was able to meet up with him again while visiting his mother Colleen a couple of years ago. That, I'm truly grateful for. I often heard of what a great husband, father and grandfather he was. He will be sorely missed. Brent will forever hold a place in my heart. My sincere condolences.

Tina, Amanda and Mike-

What a wonderful husband and father you guys had. We thought the world of him. He was definitely one in a million. When he came here to pick up the boys he was always so friendly and kind. Not to mention funny! Such a fun guy! I don't think he had an enemy in the world! Heaven has gained a wonderful man and special angel! . We will forever miss him and love him! Rest in peace Pete! Love-Cherie and Terry Bangerter and family. If you guys need anything please let us know! Our thoughts and prayers are with you all! 💙🙏🙏🙏🙏💙

Love you all! ❤️
